UNIVERSITY'S OBLIGATIONS

The University will:

1. Provide the Student with any support and information reasonably required for the completion of the DMU Summer School experience.
2. Make available to the Student relevant contacts to whom the Student can report and problems or queries whilst on the DMU Summer School.
3. Where relevant provide a University Contact who may act as a Trip Leader and accompany Students on a particular DMU Summer School.
4. Cancel with immediate effect the DMU Summer School and/or the Student's participation in it if the Student breaches the terms of this Agreement or breaches the University's rules and regulations, breaches local law and/or brings the University or the Partner Institute into disrepute., the student will bear all associated costs in this event.
5. Comply with the provisions of the Data Protection Act 2018 at all times during the DMU Summer School.

DURATION, TERMINATION AND CANCELLATION

1. The DMU Summer School experience will last for the period stated in this Student Agreement. No guarantee or warranty is given by the University that the DMU Summer School will meet all expectations of the Student.
2. The DMU Summer School shall terminate automatically if the Student ceases to be registered as a student with DMU's Partner Institute, becomes a debtor of the Institute/University or is suspended.
3. Early termination of the DMU Summer School by the student is only acceptable in medical extenuating circumstances confirmed by documentation.
4. The Student agrees and accepts that the Organisation may terminate the DMU Summer

School and/or the Student's participation in it if the Student breaches the University's rules and regulations or breaches local law and/or brings the Organisation into disrepute. This includes any violations of pandemic restrictions or entry requirements set by the UK government, through fault of their own, (in which case DMU may terminate the experience immediately and the student will be fully liable for all costs incurred).

5. The Student has until 14 February 2025 (14 days after the deposit deadline) to cancel this Agreement without liability by notifying their Institute, in writing of such cancellation.
6. In the event that the Student withdraws from the DMU Summer School the Student will be liable for all costs which have been incurred by the student, subject to clause above.
7. If the Student is no longer able to attend the DMU Summer School due to a clash with their academic studies they shall immediately notify their Institute. This cannot be cited as valid reason for refund of any payment made.
8. By signing this Student Agreement or by entering into an agreement with their Institute, the Student will remain liable for the costs incurred in the event of a cancellation.

LIABILITY

The University shall not be liable to the Student and/or any third party for any damage or loss, costs, expenses, general dissatisfaction with the DMU Summer School and/or other claims for compensation which arise out of the DMU Summer School experience and/or the Student's participation in this DMU Summer School, subject to clause below.

Nothing in this Agreement shall exclude, restrict or limit the liability of the University for death or personal injury caused by that party's negligence or for fraud.

GENERAL

1. This Agreement shall be governed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales and the University and the Student submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts.
2. Should any part, term or provision of this Agreement be found illegal or unenforceable, the validity of the remaining provisions shall not be affected.
3. Nothing in this Agreement or any negotiations shall be deemed to constitute a partnership between the parties or constitute one party as the agent of the other.
4. No variation of or amendment to this Agreement shall be binding unless made in writing and signed by all Parties to this Agreement.
5. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties in relation to its subject matter and supersedes all prior agreements understandings, communications, representations, warranties, undertakings and/or discussions whether oral or written between the parties other than representations made fraudulently.
6. No term of this Agreement shall be enforceable under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 by a third party.
7. The University shall not have any liability for any failure to perform or for any delay in the performance of any of its obligations under this Agreement caused by any factor beyond its reasonable control.

Disclaimer

DMU will make all reasonable efforts to deliver the Summer School Programme as described in the materials issued by DMU.

DMU reserves the right to vary arrangements in exceptional circumstances which are beyond the University's reasonable control.

In paying the Deposit, students agree to these terms and conditions.
